

Giving Hope Today

August 20, 2018

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM
The Housing Stability Bank at
The Salvation Army Centre of Hope

For WATER Bills - The Emergency Utility Assistance Program will be transitioning from a Limited-Time Grant Program to an Interest-Free Loan Program on or about August 30th, 2018. The available grant funding will be exhausted at this time.

The Housing Stability Bank provides limited-time grants and interest-free loans to assist Londoners with low income in obtaining and retaining their housing and to keep those at risk of homelessness housed.

Through Emergency Utility Assistance, the Housing Stability Bank distributes limited-time grants or interest-free loans to Applicants whose utilities (Gas, Electricity or Water) are pending disconnection or have been disconnected.

This is to inform you that:

For Water Bills: the Emergency Utility Assistance Program will be transitioning from a Limited-Time Grant Program to an Interest-Free Loan Program, on or about August 30, 2018, until further notice. The available Grant funding will be exhausted at that time.

Melissa Jeffrey
Housing Stability Bank
The Salvation Army Centre of Hope

Email: mjeffrey@centreofhope.ca
Phone: 519 964-3663 x 310